

Come play and study chess for a week at one of the finest summer camps in the nation

Castle Chess Camp at Emory University

June 8 - 15, 2008

The Castle Chess Camp is a nationally renowned program of chess instruction, recreation, and competition that brings together some of the best chess teachers and scholastic players from across the U.S. Now in its 8th year, the camp is recognized as one of the finest (and strongest) chess camps in the country. The camp is followed by the Emory Grand Prix tournament June 14th and 15th and all campers will be registered to play as part of the camp experience.

Who are the instructors? This year's camp features many returning from last year, including:

GM Greg Serper GM John Fedorowicz Jim Mundy

GM Julio Beccera

GM Sam Palatnik

IM Jon Schroer IM Irina Krush IM David Pruess

IM Carlos Perdomo

FM Alex Dunne

LM Mike Klein

...and others!

Due to the popularity of the camp, there is a minimum USCF rating requirement of 900 for participants.

Visit our website:

<http://castlechess.org>

Registration is now open. You can register on-line.

Questions? Contact Mark N. Taylor at mark@castlechess.org